

Dr. Sifis Plimakis

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Sifis Plimakis (BA University of Crete, MPA Liverpool, Mphil Liverpool) has a wide experience in public sector re-organization and simplification.

He works as a public management consultant and furthermore teaches at the National School of Public Administration strategic planning and administration simplification. Previously was a public services advisor at the ministries of Administrative Reform, Development & competitiveness and Transportation & telecommunications.

He has been awarded as a research fellow at the National Centre for Public Performance - Rutgers University, for 2013.

Work experience

Institution	Date
DIADIKASIA SA business consultants	2012 – now
National School of Public Administration	2010 - now
Institute for Regulatory Policy Research	201 - now
Ministry of Administrative Reform / Information Society SA	2008 - 2010
Ministry of the development & Competitiveness	2007 - 2008